Dear Mr. Roston:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) appeal submitted June 21, 2016, in which your appeal challenges the redactions made to Exhibit G to the lease (entitled "Form of Ownership Affidavit/Organization Chart") subject to Exemption 4. Your original FOIA request number was GSA-2016-000523. Your FOIA appeal number is GSA-2016-000896 for reference.

After a secondary review of the records, GSA is releasing some of the information previously withheld. Please see the enclosed document. Please note that GSA is still withholding names of private individuals who are sole members of corporation. This information is being withheld pursuant to the fourth exemption of the FOIA 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), which exempts from release any commercial or financial information obtained from a private company/ or individual that is privileged or confidential. The names are also withheld pursuant to the sixth exemption of the FOIA 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), which exempts from release any information that would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

This letter constitutes GSA's final determination regarding this matter. You have the right to seek judicial review of this determination in the United States District Court in the District in which you reside, have your principal place of business, or in the District of Columbia, or where the records are located.

As an alternative to litigation, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) has been created under the 2007 FOIA amendments. OGIS was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a nonexclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS by mail at the Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, Room 2510, College Park, MD 20740, via e-mail at ogis@nara.gov or by phone at (877) 684-6448.

Sincerely,
